

VOSH ALLIANCE PROGRAM

VOSH establishes Alliances through a written agreement with an organization.

What Do We Do?

Alliances support VOSH's strategic goals by conducting collaborative activities that emphasize raising awareness through outreach and communication, sharing information on VOSH's regulatory and enforcement activities, conducting best practice seminars, providing opportunities for VOSH to speak or exhibit at conferences and meetings, and creating and sharing compliance assistance materials.

Benefits

- Increase workers access to effective workplace safety and health tools and information about workers rights and employer responsibilities.
- Leverage resources to maximize worker safety and health protections.
- Establish progressive dialogue with the agency and others committed to workplace safety and health.

Criteria and Fundamental Requirements for Alliances

Alliance participants partner with VOSH to promote safe, healthy workplaces. When considering Alliances, VOSH looks for:

- Alignment with strategic priorities
- Participant knowledge and expertise
- Ability to address emerging issues
- Commitment to collaboration
- Outreach to high-hazard industries and at-risk workers

Alliance participants must meet key requirements:

- Share VOSH updates, campaigns, and resources
- Support Alliance goals with time and resources
- Encourage member involvement in outreach
- Provide data on Alliance activities and impact
- Promote worker participation in initiatives
- Follow VOSH guidelines for public materials
